Retail Theft

Lemont, IL - On 12/26/2017, the Lemont Police Department took custody of three subjects who were suspected of stealing approximately $4500 in merchandise on 12/23/2017 from the Target store located at 13460 S. Archer Avenue, Lemont, IL. As a result of an investigation by detectives, Merle Jones (41) of the 6500 block of Sangamon in Chicago, Christopher Carr (35) of the 1000 block of Laflin in Chicago, and Teonia Bullocks (35) of the 1000 block of Laflin in Chicago, were charged with one felony count each of Retail Theft. As part of the investigation, detectives were alerted to other possible retail thefts in which Jones and Carr were suspects. The Lemont Police Department assisted several other jurisdictions in getting felony charges approved including Flossmoor, Mount Prospect, Skokie, and Bolingbrook Police Departments. All three subjects were transported to the Bridgeview courthouse on 12/28/2017 and were awaiting a bond hearing.
