LONG-TIME LEMONT POLICE COMMANDER RETIRES

Lemont, IL - Long-time Lemont Police Commander, Gregory D. Smith, retires after 27 years of service. Commander Smith began his career in Lemont in April 1991. He served as a Patrol Officer, Detective and Sergeant prior to being promoted to Commander in 2006. He is credited with enhancing Lemont's police department during his tenure as the leader of many program innovations in the department. He would like to thank the Village of Lemont and its citizens for 27 years of support in helping to keep Lemont a great place to live and work. Residents that know Greg and would like to wish him well are invited to the Lemont Police Department for a Cookie and Coffee Retirement Reception on Wednesday, February 28th, from 3:00-4:30 p.m.
